

AAIF Report

The next biennial AAIF Conference will be held at the Laws Lodge at the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary from June 27 through 29, 2008. This is a lovely facility. Most of the rooms have one queen size bed with a private bath. Cribs and rollaway beds are available. Handicap accessible rooms are available. Some rooms have two twin beds with a private bath. The conference room is in the same building as the sleeping rooms. You can begin calling Laws Lodge now to make your reservation. Be sure to tell them that you are with the American Association of Interchurch Families (AAIF) to get our reduced room rate. 502-992-5437

All details are posted on our website www.aifusa.org. You can also find membership information on our website.

Bonnie Mack, from an interchurch marriage in Cincinnati and who works for the Diocese of Cincinnati, will be doing a presentation at Boston College this fall about interchurch marriages. The USCCB is doing an in depth study on marriage and the family and her report will become a part of this study. She has asked American interchurch families for input for her report.

In October, Pete and I will do a presentation on ecumenism and interfaith relations as it pertains to interchurch families. We will go to Columbia, South Carolina and do this for the Catholic Diocese of Charleston, SC for priests and for anyone there who works with ecumenical issues.

We are also working on our collective response that we are sending to Father Kilcourse regarding the "Domestic Church" that the PCPCU has asked us to address for the IFIN.
